BRIGID FEST 2025

JANUARY 30th - FEBRUARY 20th

Brigid Fest is a celebration of Brigid's Day, which has its origins in the Celtic festival of Imbolc. This festival symbolises the beginning of spring and honours Brigid, the Celtic goddess of crafts, learning, and fertility. In more recent times, Brigid has come to represent wisdom and strength, and it is these attributes that we aim to celebrate with a whole month of engaging activities.

HeART of Gaza - Children's Art From The Genocide

HeART of Gaza grew out of a WhatsApp exchange of children's drawings between Mohammed Timraz (Gaza) and Féile Butler (Sligo). This exhibition offers an intimate insight into the lived reality of childhood in a genocide, depicting both the horrors and moments of beauty, of fond memories tinged with melancholy, of resilience and defiance, and of hope for the future. Donations encouraged.

February 21st - March 1st
Launch 7pm

HeART of Gaza Workshops

HeART of Gaza

Workshops are hosted alongside the exhibitions, inviting members of the public to make art in response to HeArt of Gaza. Workshops will be open to the public on 22nd Feb and 1st March. School workshops are facilitated by Féile Butler and are taking place on the 3rd of March. There are two available time slots to book for these workshops, 10am – 12pm, and 1pm – 3pm.

Immersions – The art of Lake Swims

Edwina Knight presents an exhibition of oil paintings inspired by her experience of swimming in Lough Derg. Each artwork captures the dance of light and colour in the water, reflecting both its serenity and turbulence. The lake is her muse, symbolising the complex emotions we all face. She invites you to connect with nature and enjoy her fun semi abstract paintings. Meet The Artist - Monday 10th 2.pm-4.pm

FREE

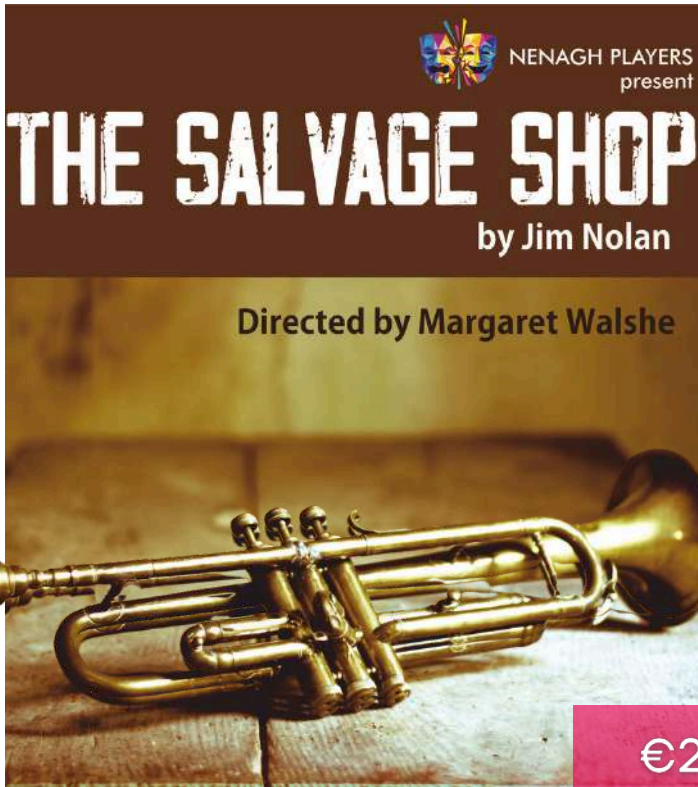

3rd March - 31st March

“Each canvas is an act of immersion. It is a return to a place where I am simultaneously grounded and free. In translating these swims into oil paintings, I hope to convey the universal solace found in nature’s embrace and the beauty of connecting with a world that exists beyond words.”

Nenagh Players Present The Salvage Shop

The Salvage Shop is set in the fictional seaside of Garris. It centres on the strained relationship between Sylvie, an alcoholic bandmaster and opera enthusiast who runs the salvage shop, and his son Eddie, a euphonium player who left the band years ago.

Eddie seeks reconciliation with his father, invoking the spirit of Luciano Pavarotti to bridge the gap between them.

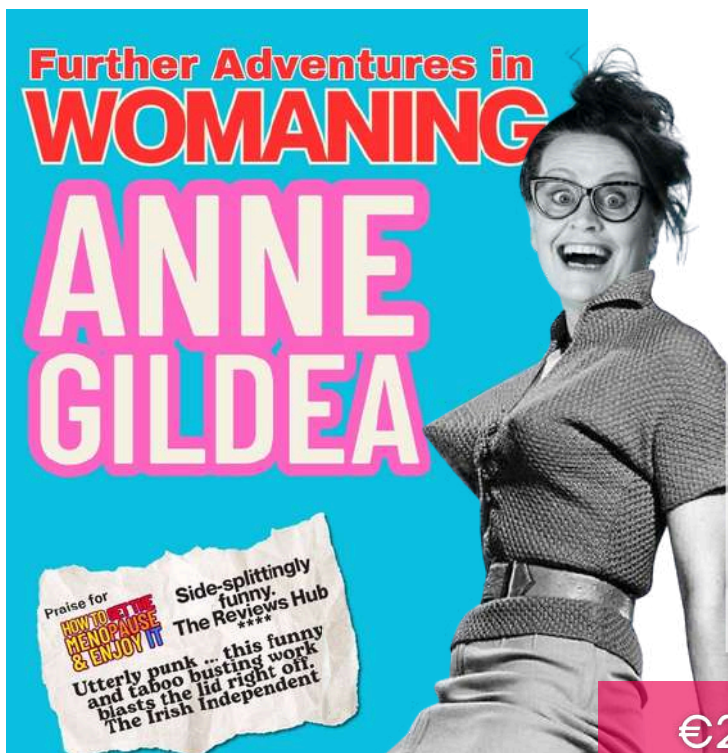

The play explores themes of redemption, forgiveness and the healing power of music within a family and community.

"It's tough to capture all the growth and progress in a simple stage show, because what stands out is the strong bonds that formed among the members."

- CALVIN MAGEE, DIRECTOR

The Nenagh Youth Drama Festival is a celebration of the hard work put in by young members of NYT during their 'Introduction to Youth Theatre Programme.' It is a taster of what is to come from the members. This is THEIR festival and they were the driving force behind all the decisions made.
